Block A: Networking

A001

The Cathedral and Its Relationship to the Community

Very Rev. Carl A. Last, Rector & Pastor
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Discover the importance of the partnership between a Cathedral and the Community and how the history of a Cathedral makes an important contribution to the community of which it belongs.

A002

Discerning Gifts of the Cathedral Volunteer
Helen Gadbois, Time & Talent Coordinator
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Strategies and discussion from a unique perspective – Helen is one of only a few professional Cathedral Time and Talent (Volunteer) Coordinators! Together we will discuss ways to encourage Cathedral parishioners and friends to discern their gifts and talents and support activities that form a strong and vibrant Cathedral Community. Helen will share firsthand what has worked well and what has not worked here in Milwaukee and you will share your stories with us.

A003

Sacramental Policies in the Cathedral
Michael J. Batcho, Director of Music
Scott W. Eakins, Director of Liturgy
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

An opportunity to share with others the joys and challenges of Sacramental preparation and policies in the Cathedral.

A004

Maintaining Compassion & Hope: Outreach & Social Justice in the Cathedral
Donna Gazzana, Dir. of Outreach Ministries
Teresa Flaherty, Parish Nurse
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Through small and large group discussions, participants will share strategies for, and challenges of, maintaining compassion and hope for ourselves, for our volunteers and for those we serve.

A005

Faith Formation in the Cathedral
Pat Wisialowski, Pastoral Associate
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

To Coalesce – from the Latin: to grow, to nourish. Let's talk about how we do this!

A006

Cathedral Marketing: Tapping into the Community
Mary C. Bennett, Director of Administration
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Every Cathedral should be a place of destination. This presentation lets you see how the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist took on that challenge.

Tuesday, January 12

Block B

B001

New Cathedral Pastors/Rectors
Very Rev. Bill Fichteman, Pastor
Cathedral of the Assumption, Louisville, KY
Very Rev. Dan Mayall, Pastor
Holy Name Cathedral, Chicago, IL

Fathers Bill Fichteman from Louisville and Dan Mayall from Chicago have combined experience of over 20 years as Cathedral pastors. This interactive workshop will focus on the aspects of pastoring which are unique to Cathedral parishes and will orient the new pastors to the special challenges of relating to diocesan agencies, other parishes, the bishop, civic leaders and the media as well as the need to model excellence in multiple areas of parish life.

B002

Personnel Issues, Ministry and the Law
Richard Tank, Dir. of Personnel Services
Archdiocese of Milwaukee

Everyone wants to work in a Cathedral staff that is nurturing and enriching. But are there times where the needs of the organization and its employees are at odds with one another? What are the likely areas of conflict and where do state and federal laws support one side or the other?

B003

Multicultural Celebrations: Where are we at? Where are we going?
Barbara Tracey, Liturgy & Music Coordinator
St. Michael and St. Rose Parish, Milwaukee
Bro. Rufino Zaragoza, OFM, Liturgical Music Consultant

Some Cathedrals include Spanish texts and repertoire into their liturgies; some Cathedral musicians and liturgists are responsible for multicultural celebrations in their diocese. But what is the difference between bilingual, multilingual and multicultural? Join us for a frank discussion about the challenges and the joys of multicultural liturgy, including a review of terms and models of celebration. We will run the gamut from "why" to "how", and exchange resource materials concerning this elusive topic.

B004

How "Green" is your Cathedral?
Fr. David Garcia, Senior Advisor: Clergy Outreach
Catholic Relief Services

How climate change and care for creation affect Cathedrals and how to make your Cathedral a model for the diocese in addressing these issues.

B005

Engaging Young Adults @ the Cathedral
Paul Jarzebowski
Executive Director: National Catholic Young Adult Ministry Association (NCYAMA)

In the non-stop, googling world we now live in, connecting with men and women in their late teen, twenties, and thirties can be a challenge, but also an incredible opportunity for the Church. This workshop will explore who young adults are today, what they're seriously looking for in their faith life, and, using resources and best practices from around the United States, give some practical tips on how Cathedral parishes in particular can engage, outreach, and minister to Gen Xers and Millennials.

B006

WEB Technology & Evangelization
Scott W. Eakins, Dir. of Communications
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Discover ways to evangelize the parish, community and the diocese through the use of Web Technology. Websites, Blogs, Social Networking, and Podcasting will be explored during this workshop.

What's new this year?

Destination Restaurants: On Wednesday evening conference Governing Committee members and Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist staff members will host groups at a variety of Milwaukee restaurants. This provides an easy way to choose a restaurant and join people for dinner on your free evening. Sign-up will take place at the conference on Tuesday.

Exhibitors will be located right in the Grand Ballroom area where breakfast, lunch and breaks will be held

Registration for the Conference is available online at:

Block C

C001

CATHEDRAL CONNECTIONS: Nurturing Relationships between Parishes and their Cathedrals

Very Reverend Michael G. Ryan, Pastor
Corinna Laughlin, Ph.D., Director of Liturgy
Saint James Cathedral, Seattle, WA

This workshop will explore practical ways to build and strengthen the relationship between the Cathedral and the parishes in your diocese through prayer, pilgrimage, tours, and more. These relationships can enrich both the Cathedral and the parishes in many ways.

C002

The Cathedral Pulpit: the Whole Diocese is Listening!

Rev. Richard N. Fragomeni, Ph.D.,
Assoc. Professor of Liturgy and Preaching
Catholic Theological Union, Chicago, IL

It is said that the Cathedral is to be the model of good liturgy and preaching. Explore criteria of excellence for preaching in the Cathedral that will resonate throughout the rest of the local church.

C003

Dying to Live: A Theology of Immigration
Daniel G. Groody, CSC, Ph.D.,
Assistant Professor of Theology
Notre Dame University, South Bend, IN

Immigration is a complex issue that is changing the face of cultures worldwide and the places we live and worship. In the United States it is often controversial with many social, economic, political and even religious implications. In the debate, what often gets lost are the human issues at stake. This presentation explores the human face of the migrant and the face of Christ in the migrant. It will examine the geographical, conceptual and theological territory of migration and reflect on the human struggle for a more dignified life and the search to find God in the midst of it all.

C004

Lifelong Faith Formation

Sean T. Lansing, Project Coordinator for
Youth Ministry Services
Center for Ministry Development

The catechetical vision of the Church (General Directory for Catechesis) calls us to create truly effective faith formation for all ages and generations. This session will address four important questions:

- What is the urgency for lifelong faith formation today?
- What is the Church's vision of lifelong faith formation?
- What does the research tell us about characteristics of effective lifelong faith formation?
- How do parish communities implement lifelong, intergenerational faith formation?

C005

Poverty and the Role of the Cathedral Clinician: Sr. Shawnee Sykes

Embodying the principal of the dignity of every human person the Cathedral has always been called to advocacy of the poor. With the current unsettled economy, the need for advocacy and service is heightened yet we continue to struggle in our ministry. Join others in learning how to reconnect to the principals of human dignity, rediscover opportunities for advocacy and reinvigorate the call to ministry of the poor in the Cathedral.

C006

The Arts at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Michael J. Batcho, Director of Music
Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

Hear how the Fine Arts program at the Cathedral of St. John is organized and funded, then attend the weekly Wednesday Concert.

Wednesday Tours

T001

Architecture and Art

Bus leaves at 1:30 PM (boarding at 1:20) from The Pfister Hotel for an Architecture and Art Tour. During the tour you will visit:

Conrad Schmitt Studios — guided tour to view Artisans at work, perhaps meet the founder, Bernard O. Gruenke, and hear about their past work with the churches to be toured.

Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, Rev. Father James Dokos personally leads this tour. See the church designed for the Congregation by Frank Lloyd Wright and hear about their Liturgical use of the Worship Space.

St. Paul Episcopal Church — guided tour of stained glass windows, in particular the largest collection of Tiffany Windows in Wisconsin.

Return to The Pfister Hotel by 5:45 PM.

T002

Beer Barons

Bus leaves at 1:45 PM (boarding at 1:35) from The Pfister Hotel for guided tours of:

Pabst Mansion — built in 1890-92 for Capt. Frederick Pabst, world famous beer baron and his family. In 1908 the Archdiocese purchased it and for 67 years it served as the residence for five Archbishops.

Lakefront Brewery — The newest micro-brewery in Milwaukee, the tour includes sampling of the brews, seeing the process, and hear about starting a modern day micro-brewery.

Return to The Pfister Hotel by 5:45 PM.
